

Dragon Tale News

A cartoon illustration featuring a news anchor on the left, wearing a blue suit and a blue cap, holding a red megaphone. To his right is a green dragon with a yellow lightning bolt on its forehead. They are standing on a grey silhouette of a city skyline. A signpost with a yellow lightning bolt symbol is visible in the background.

Description: Lights, Camera, Action! This is an exciting program that will involve your child in creating morning news broadcast to be shown over our school's short circuit TV system for the rest of the year.

Sponsored by: Cynthia Featherston (Quest Teacher) & Erin Shelton (Counselor)

Grade: 4th Grade

Where: Broadcasting Room

When: 7:45 every morning that their team is scheduled to broadcast.

Dates: Students will be divided into broadcasting teams; they will then receive a schedule of when they will be on the news.

Semester: All year

Parental Involvement Required: Students will need to be dropped off the mornings of the broadcast.

Enrollment Limitations: Depends on the number of students wanting to participate. (10 students per broadcasting team) We try our hardest to make sure everyone that applies gets some type of job.

Registration Procedure: Students will need to apply for their job on the team. The applications will be available the second week of school.

Application forms will be handed out in the classroom to all students expressing an interest in the program and NOT at Club and Activity Day Sign Up.
