

Latin IV AP

Read the chapters about the Trojan War and the Aeneid in Edith Hamilton's Mythology. Be familiar with the major characters and events. (OR if you are a very ambitious student, read an English translation of the whole book.) Here is where you can buy the books on-line.

Provides the Latin text online along with several English translations

We will have a test over the major events and characters the first week of school.

I STRONGLY recommend that you spend some time learning some common vocabulary from the Aeneid. Here are some websites with games and flashcards. Focus first on vocabulary from Book 1:
